

Docklands Business Forum
Values and Mission Statement

The Docklands Business Forum is a network of businesses, people and organisations committed to making the docklands a more profitable place to do business, a better place to live and a vibrant destination to visit.

Our Key Aims & Objectives are to:

Act as a networking facility for businesses in the Docklands area.

Initiate joint marketing programmes promoting our membership's products and services to the docklands community and beyond.

Promote the docklands as a great place to visit and enjoy.

Act as a representative voice of business and employees in the area.

Encourage local businesses to get involved with the local community and environment.

Encourage the development of an enterprise culture and to integrate Docklands Business with the wider Dublin Area.
